

SANBI GBIF Node Postdoctoral Fellowship

Postdoc application cover sheet

Personal Information
Title and Surname:	First Name:
Preferred name:	ID / passport number:
Current Postal Address:
Telephone / Mobile:	E-mail:
Are you a South African Citizen: YES / NO
if yes, please indicate race: AFRICAN / COLOURED / INDIAN / WHITE
Gender: FEMALE / MALE / OTHER
Do you have a disability? YES / NO	If yes, please specify:
Submission documents. Tick all that apply, incomplete applications will not be considered.
Letter of application (describing your suitability for the position in terms of skills and experience, highlights of achievements to date, research interests, and future goals)
Proposal for the research (3 pages) highlighting the research objectives, research questions and research methodology, its relevance to the objectives of the SANBI-GBIF Node, details of potential supervisor, and a clear timeframe indicating particular research outputs with anticipated start and end dates
Full CV (clearly indicating your study field, qualifications and marks achieved, list of research publications, conference presentations, mentoring and teaching history, employment history, awards and achievements, etc)
Three letters of reference (academic)
Signed letter of acceptance from supervisor / and or host institution
Certified copy of academic transcripts (including copy of PhD certificate)
Certified copy of highest qualification (certified translation if required)
Examples of published articles
Certified copy of ID (or passport for non-RSA residents)

Please name each document clearly and ideally combine this cover sheet with the rest of the documents in the order above and submit as a single pdf file to students@sanbi.org.za and students.sanbi@gmail.com with "SANBI-GBIF Node postdoc application" in the subject line."

E-mails must be <10MB.

Deadline for submission: 3 March 2023 at 18:00